TriZetto Provider Solutions®

Advanced Reimbursement Manager Pro

Technology to re-engineer your payment recovery strategy.

Appeals cost approximately $25 to rework and submit for a professional claim, with that cost increasing to nearly $125 per institutional claim. With underpaid and mis-adjudicated claims on the rise, totaling on average 10% of total reimbursement, the time and money spent identifying, analyzing, and recouping this at-risk revenue can significanlty impact a healthcare organization.

TriZetto Provider Solutions offers Advanced Reimbursement Manager Pro (ARM), a claims pricing engine, integrating real time claim and remit data, and practice specific fee schedules, to audit payer performance for professional and institutional claims. With over 350 million payer rules and edits, ARM maintains a detailed understanding of payer adjudication processes and automates the identification of underpaid or incorrectly denied claims.

With Advanced Reimbursement Manager Pro you can:

- Automate the process to identify payment and contract discrepencies

- Categorize and group similar-type denials to eliminate guesswork

- Streamline appeals, eliminating manual efforts with pre-populated redetemination letters and electronic form submission

- Leverage performance indicators and best practices to achieve optimal financial results

- Gain enterprise-wide reporting to enable data aggregation

- Integrate workflows into your practice management system using an available API

Learn how clients are experiencing 60:1 ROI*. Get started with ARM to identify, appeal and avoid costly underpaid and denied claims.
