

CREDENTIALING JUST GOT EASIER WITH TRIZETTO PROVIDER SOLUTIONS®

CREDENTIALING IS AN IMPORTANT COMPONENT OF RUNNING YOUR PRACTICE.

Whether your office has one or one hundred providers, obtaining and maintaining your credentials with government and commercial payers is an important administrative task that if neglected can cost your practice thousands of dollars in lost revenue. With additional pressures on every area of your practice, credentialing that is done efficiently and correctly can make a significant difference in revenue generation.

Let the Professionals Help

Our trained staff of credentialing professionals knows the intricacies of gathering the right information for each insurance company, and how to follow up so that details don't get missed.

Whether your practice needs to be credentialed for the first time or you need re-credentialing assistance, you can trust our experienced team to gather, validate and confirm each piece of critical data in the credentialing process.

Online forms are submitted and confirmations tracked. For payers that require mailed submissions we will forward your staff the completed package to send to the payer. Continuous follow up with each payer enable us to provide you with ongoing status updates, so you'll always be current about where you or your providers stand in the process.

Benefits checklist

Accuracy

- Consolidated information gathering and management tracking results in reduced errors and a faster path to credentialed providers

"If healthcare professionals fail to view the credentialing life cycle as an integral component of the revenue cycle they will see increased denials, frustrated physicians, fragmented operations and lost revenue."

Our Credentials – the powerful combination of people and process

You need an outsourced partner you can trust with this important business activity.

People

Your credentialing is a top priority, not one more item on the list of things to do. You'll be assigned a single point of contact who you'll work with throughout the credentialing process. We keep you up-to-speed with weekly reporting so you'll always know where each of your submissions stand in the credentialing process.

Process

We know payers, we know providers, and through years of experience, we've learned the best practices to make the credentialing process run smoothly.
