

Chello

Our intelligent cash flow management and lending engine is built for growing medical practices like yours.

What's the problem?

We've heard from practices like yours that it's not easy to manage your daily finances... especially cash flow.

“ My cash flow is too unpredictable!

I wish I had easier and quicker access to funding.

“ I wish I had daily financial insights for my practice...

If only I had a CFO!

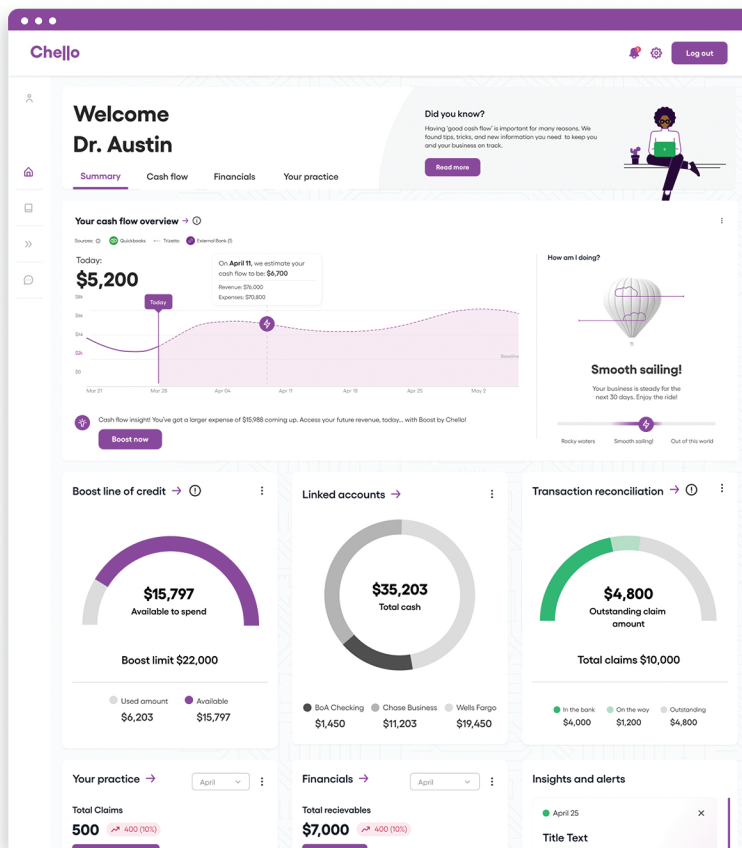

“ My healthcare apps are not connected to my banking or accounting...

Why do I have to do everything manually?

The solution?

Chello. The cash flow insights dashboard & funding engine... built specifically for medical practices.

All of your data in one place

We connect all your banking, accounting software, and practice management platforms so that you can see all of your data in one place – an intuitive, interactive dashboard.

Daily insights and future projections

We show you cash flow insights and alerts you need to help protect and grow your practice.

Personalized guidance

We match you with a dedicated relationship manager who understands your finances and the intricacies of your business. They're on call to help you with important decisions.

Quick access to funding

With Boost Line of Credit*, you can instantly unlock the right amount of funding* to fuel your business growth.

*Certain terms and conditions apply. Subject to credit approval.
